SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEF IN SUPPORT OF DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT ON PLAINTIFF CARLOS VEGA'S AGE DISCRIMINATION
CLAIMS BASED ON MR. VEGA'S STATEMENTS IN A MAY 14, 2021 VERIFIED
STATE COURT COMPLAINT

On May 14, 2021, Plaintiff Carlos Vega filed a verified complaint in the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas: Carlos Vega v. Shaun King, Real Justice PAC and Lawrence Krasner for DA (May Term 2021, No. 00305). Defendants respectfully request that the Court take judicial notice of paragraphs 35-39 and 45-47 of the May 14, 2021 Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas complaint and Mr. Vega's verification, and consider Mr. Vega's admissions in ruling on Defendants' motion for summary judgment on Mr. Vega's age discrimination claims in this case. Mr. Vega alleges in the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas complaint, under penalty of perjury, that Mr. Krasner "has never gotten over being handily beaten by Mr. Vega" in the Scott/Mohammed trial, that Mr. Krasner "swore to get revenge" against Mr. Vega, and that Mr. Krasner's "long-standing malice and resentment of Mr. Vega" caused Mr. Krasner to terminate Mr. Vega's employment in the first week after Mr. Krasner became District Attorney. Mr. Vega's verified allegations preclude any possibility that Mr. Vega's age was the "but-for" reason for the termination of his employment.

At any stage in a proceeding, a federal court may take judicial notice of facts that “can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Fed. R. Ev. 201(b)(2); see Fed. R. Ev. 201(d). A court must take judicial notice if a litigant requests that it do so and provides it with the “necessary information.” Fed. R. Ev. 201(c)(2).

The contents of a court’s dockets are reliable public records of which a court may take judicial notice in another case. See, e.g., Orabi v. Attorney General, 738 F.3d 535, 537 n.1 (3d Cir. 2014) (“We may take judicial notice of the contents of another Court’s docket.”). Here, Defendants request that the Court take notice of the May 14, 2021 Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas complaint. A copy of the verified complaint is attached as Exhibit 1.

Specifically, Defendants request that the Court take judicial notice of the following statements made by Mr. Vega under penalty of perjury:

Para. 35: “In December 2016, less than two months prior to Mr. Krasner’s announcement of his candidacy for District Attorney, he defended a cold-blooded killer, Ibrahim Muhammed, in a three-week murder trial.”

Para. 36: “Ibrahim Muhammed and his co-conspirator, Nalik Scott, were charged with a triple murder inside a West Philadelphia Bodega.” (Footnote omitted).

Para. 37: “Plaintiff Carlos Vega was one of two prosecutors assigned by the Philadelphia District Attorney’s Office to the Muhammed/Scott murder trial.”

Para. 38: “At the conclusion of a contentious three-week trial, the jury deliberated for approximately ninety minutes then returned a verdict of guilty on all charges against defendants Muhammed and Scott.”

Para. 39: “Krasner has never gotten over being handily beaten by Mr. Vega, and swore to get revenge against him.” (Emphasis added).

Para. 45: “On January 5, 2018 he was sworn in as the top law enforcement officer in the City of Philadelphia.”

Para. 46: “On January 5, 2018, at the end of his first week as the Philadelphia [District Attorney], DA Krasner fired thirty-one prosecutors, among them Plaintiff, Carlos Vega.”

Para. 47: “Krasner’s long-standing malice and resent[ment] of Mr. Vega resulted in his illegal termination of Mr. Vega, who was forced to file suit against Krasner. That legal action was brought pursuant to the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, 29 U.S.C. § 621 et seq. and the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act, 43 P.S. § 951 et seq.” (Emphasis added).

Verification: “I am the Plaintiff in this action, and I verify that the statements made in the foregoing Complaint are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief. I also understand that the statements made herein are subject to penalties of 18 Pa.C.S.A. § 4904 relating to unsworn falsification to authorities. /s/ Carlos Vega, Esquire.” (Emphasis added).

Mr. Vega’s verified statements are an admission that the contentious Scott/Mohammed trial “resulted in” his discharge. As set forth in Defendants’ summary judgment papers, and as now admitted by Mr. Vega under oath, Mr. Krasner’s negative experience with Mr. Vega in the Scott/Muhammed case was the primary reason for Mr. Krasner’s decision to terminate Mr. Vega’s employment. See SMF ¶¶ 19-23. On this record, Mr. Vega cannot show, as a matter of law, that age was the “but for” reason for his discharge. Gross v. FBL Fin. Servs., Inc., 557 U.S. 167, 177-78 (2009) (a plaintiff alleging that he was subjected to adverse employment action in violation of the ADEA must show that his “age was the ‘but-for’ cause of the employer’s adverse action.”); see, e.g., Palmer v. Britton Indus., 662 F. App’x 147, 151-53 (3d Cir. 2016) (granting employer’s motion for summary judgment where the plaintiff admitted that the employer had multiple reasons for firing him and plaintiff’s proffered evidence did not support a plausible inference that the employer’s purported age bias was the “determinative” factor in that decision). Accordingly, because Mr. Vega admits that age was not the ‘but-for’ reason that Defendants terminated his employment, his age discrimination claims cannot survive summary judgment.

CONCLUSION

Defendants respectfully request that the Court take judicial notice of Mr. Vega's verified statements in the May 14, 2021 Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas complaint and, for the reasons set forth above and in Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment, grant Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment.

Respectfully submitted,

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

COMPLAINT

LIBEL AND SLANDER

INTRODUCTION

1. The race for Philadelphia District Attorney should be no different than any other election. There must be a sense of integrity free from malicious and false statements that will invariably tarnish reputation and erode public confidence in the criminal justice system and the City's elected District Attorney – whomever that may be.

2. This action for false light arises out of statements made by the Defendants concerning Plaintiff Carlos Vega, Esquire, which falsely accused Mr. Vega of fabricating evidence, forcing and bribing witnesses to give false testimony, threatening violence to coerce false statements and confessions, suppressing evidence which would routinely have proved individuals arrested and charged with crimes were innocent, framing and convicting Anthony Wright of rape and murder, and decades of morally and ethically reprehensible conduct, including acting in his official capacity as a City prosecutor to obstruct the administration of justice.

3. Mr. Vega files this lawsuit to expose the truth, not hide from it.

4. In a remarkably Machiavellian fashion, these Defendants have conspired, for their own greed and using Philadelphia's citizens as a steppingstone for a desired national political presence, have lied to the citizens of Philadelphia, and funneled significant funds donated by unwitting citizens of Philadelphia to line the pockets of defendant Shaun King, his Real Justice PAC, and the Krasner campaign.

5. A key aspect of any election is the need for a level of honesty. Neither a candidate nor incumbent should solicit other lawyers or individuals to provide false information about their opponent and publish those false accusations. There must be consequences for doing so.<sup>1</sup>

6. The sad reality is that neither Krasner nor King care a whit about Philadelphia, its citizens, or the malignantly expanding crime that is suffocating this

<sup>1</sup> For attorneys such as DA Krasner, false information can result in professional discipline. Pennsylvania Rules of Professional Conduct Rule 8.4(c) precludes a lawyer from engaging in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation.

City; they will use whatever means are needed, including illegal and false smears against their adversaries, to achieve their goals.

7. The lies spread by these Defendants about Mr. Vega, a thirty-five (35) year prosecutor that has dedicated his life to protecting the citizens of Philadelphia, are shameful and maliciously false at their core.

8. And, in spite of being confronted with the truth, these defendants refused to retract, correct, or otherwise withdraw their false claims. See Exhibit “A,” Mr. Vega’s retraction demand which identifies three specific lies spread by these Defendants, as well as the truth regarding these assertions. See also Exhibit “B,” Defendant King’s defiant article titled, “When an evil man sues you for telling the truth about him. Carlos Vega v. Shaun King, Real Justice, and Larry Krasner,” published through www.thenorthstar.com, refusing to correct his false statements, and further spreading the lies.

9. In order for these Defendants to achieve their national political goals and line their pockets with unsuspecting donor’s hard-earned money, they have sacrificed the lives and safety of all Philadelphians; gun violence and homicides plague Philadelphia communities as murders and violent crimes surge to historic levels.<sup>2</sup>

10. The unprecedented level of crime occurred during DA Krasner’s term under his policies.

11. On Tuesday, May 18, 2021, Philadelphians will cast their vote in the primary election for the next District Attorney.

<sup>2</sup> Year-to-date as of May 13, 2021 192 murders - a 40% increase. www.phillypolice.com/crime-maps-stats/

12. Plaintiff Carlos Vega, Esquire, a former career prosecutor, is on the Democratic ballot opposing DA Krasner in a race that is uncomfortably close for the incumbent.

13. This election comes at a critical juncture as voters fairly question DA Krasner's ability to deliver reform and safety. DA Krasner's abysmal record is indefensible; he and those around him know it.

14. To distract Philadelphians from the critical issues, the Defendants have embarked on a fear mongering smear campaign to drive their maliciously false message and distract Philadelphians from DA Krasner's indefensible record as Philadelphia's chief law enforcement officer.

15. In order to manipulate the citizens of Philadelphia, these Defendants are lying to them about Mr. Vega, accusing him of, for example, "fixing" the Anthony Wright<sup>3</sup> case, "falsely imprisoning [Wright]" for over 25 years, and that Mr. Vega harbors prejudice and bias toward minorities. Further, these Defendants conspired to falsely assert that Mr. Vega, who in his official capacity as a City prosecutor, carried the taint of these biases and acted in a manner consistent with them, all of which are outrageously false, and intended to cast Mr. Vega in a false light before the public.

<sup>3</sup> These Defendants have placed Krasner's office in a direct conflict of interest in having Anthony Wright support the campaign and spread more lies about Mr. Vega, while at the same time having an open DUI case (MC-51-CR-0006368-2020) against Wright in that office. One must wonder what breaks Mr. Wright will get for helping to smear Mr. Vega and get Krasner re-elected.

16. Uncoincidentally, Tony Wright is pictured here campaigning for Larry Krasner:

17. The Defendants' hypocrisy, malice, and abject racism is evident by this outrageous image of Mr. Vega that hangs right inside Krasner's DA office:

18. Outside of these intentional misrepresentations, the Defendants have taken additional steps to attack Mr. Vega's law license, accusing him of significant violations of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

19. The Defendants falsely assert the culmination of Mr. Vega's misconduct involved "framing and convicting" an innocent man, Anthony Wright, for a murder he did not commit. And for these reasons, DA Krasner terminated Mr. Vega in January 2018 when he took office.

20. In spite of knowing the truth, the Defendants have published to Philadelphia and the world countless tweets, Facebook posts, and Instagram posts recycling and republishing their same false accusations.

21. This lawsuit now follows to repair the damage done to Mr. Vega by these Defendants and to punish them for their reckless and malicious lies.

PARTIES

22. Carlos Vega is an adult individual who is a citizen of, and domiciled in, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania.

23. Shaun King is a citizen of the State of New York and was, at all relevant times an agent and/or employee of Defendant Real Justice PAC.

24. Real Justice PAC is a political action committee approved by the Pennsylvania Department of State, which fundraises and/or donates significant amounts of money to political action committees and individuals in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and is located at the address identified above.

25. The Real Justice PAC supplies fundraising platforms via social media and national email list to raise money directly for candidates.

26. Lawrence Krasner for DA is a political action committee, located at the address identified above, seeking to re-elect Lawrence Krasner as the District Attorney of Philadelphia County.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

27. This Court has jurisdiction in that the amount in controversy vastly exceeds the arbitration limits and Plaintiff demands a jury trial.

28. Venue is proper because the Defendants targeted their specific statements, publications, and tortious conduct at issue in this action directly toward and in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

29. Mr. Vega was the first Latino Homicide prosecutor in Pennsylvania.

30. Mr. Vega dedicated thirty-five (35) years protecting Philadelphians as a prosecutor.

31. Mr. Vega's prosecutorial work included prosecuting over four hundred (400) murder cases, overturning wrongful convictions, and standing up for marginalized Philadelphia communities like the New York City neighborhood he grew up in.

32. Mr. Vega possessed an impeccable reputation as a prosecutor for thirty-five (35) years; he was never once disciplined by The Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

33. Mr. Vega, a single father, also worked the night shift at UPS for nearly fifteen (15) years while still employed as a full-time prosecutor to support his children.

34. While Mr. Vega was pulling double duty as a top homicide prosecutor protecting Philadelphia's citizens, and raising a family, Krasner was a criminal defense attorney trying to make a name for himself.

35. In December 2016, less than two months prior to Mr. Krasner's announcement of his candidacy for District Attorney, he defended a cold-blooded killer, Ibrahim Muhammed, in a three-week murder trial.

36. Ibrahim Muhammed and his co-conspirator, Nalik Scott, were charged with a triple murder inside a West Philadelphia Bodega.<sup>4</sup>

37. Plaintiff Carlos Vega was one of two prosecutors assigned by the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office to the Muhammed/Scott murder trial.

38. At the conclusion of a contentious three-week trial, the jury deliberated for approximately ninety minutes then returned a verdict of guilty on all charges against defendants Muhammed and Scott.

39. Krasner has never gotten over being handily beaten by Mr. Vega, and swore to get revenge against him.

40. On February 8, 2017, career defense attorney Larry Krasner announced his candidacy for Philadelphia District Attorney to challenge the incumbent District Attorney Seth Williams in the May 2017 Democratic Primary election.<sup>5</sup>

41. During the 2017 campaign, Mr. Krasner was transformed from most unlikely to a high-profile candidate after an investment of nearly $1.5 million dollars from billionaire George Soros in a pro-Krasner independent political action committee.

42. Indeed, the infusion of out-of-town cash propelled Mr. Krasner to victory in 2017.<sup>6</sup>

<sup>6</sup> Krasner and his campaign and Real Justice PAC were caught violating campaign finance laws; these parties were forced to return many of the improperly obtained funds and assessed a civil monetary

43. On May 17, 2017, Mr. Krasner won the Democratic primary election thereby earning the Democratic nomination for District Attorney in the November 2017 general election.

44. On November 7, 2017 Mr. Krasner was won the general election.

45. On January 2, 2018 he was sworn in as the top law enforcement officer in the City of Philadelphia.

46. On January 5, 2018, at the end of his first week as the Philadelphia attorney, DA Krasner fired thirty-one (31) prosecutors, among them Plaintiff, Carlos Vega.

47. Krasner's long-standing malice and resent of Mr. Vega resulted in his illegal termination of Mr. Vega, who was forced to file suit against Krasner. That legal action was brought pursuant to the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, 29 U.S.C. §621 et seq. and the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act, 43 P.S. §951 et seq.<sup>7</sup>

The Cover Up

48. On March 30, 2021, the Philadelphia Inquirer published a damning report on Philadelphia crime with particular focus on gun arrests and violent crime. See "Philly Gun Arrests are on a record pace, but convictions drop under DA Krasner" attached hereto as Exhibit "C."

penalty. In spite of this, and as written below, these Defendants have not learned their lesson, and continue to use the same illegal methods to misappropriate funds donated to the Krasner campaign and Real Justice PAC for their collective greed.

Philly gun arrests are on a record pace, but convictions drop under DA Krasner

Police are on pace to make 3,000 arrests this year for carrying a gun illegally, a record, but the people charged are less likely to be convicted.

Philadelphia Police Capt. Matthew Gillespie, of the 18th District, regularly posts photos on Twitter of guns that police have seized during arrests. Each of the firearms above was recovered in March 2021. Philadelphia Police Department Tweets

49. This news article reported the alarming pace at which police are making arrests for individuals carrying an illegal gun.

50. Despite a threefold increase in gun arrests since 2017, those accused reportedly have seen the odds at being convicted by Krasner's DA Office "plunge from 63% in 2017 to 49% two years later." See Exhibit "C."

51. The Inquirer analysis revealed that the drop in conviction rates for being caught with an illegal gun coincided with Krasner being sworn into office in January 2018.

52. Philadelphia Police Commissioner Danielle Outlaw stated:

"If there's nothing to deter folks, if there's no consequence where people believe, 'If I do this, this is going to happen,' [then] there's no incentive to not carry a gun illegally, quite frankly."

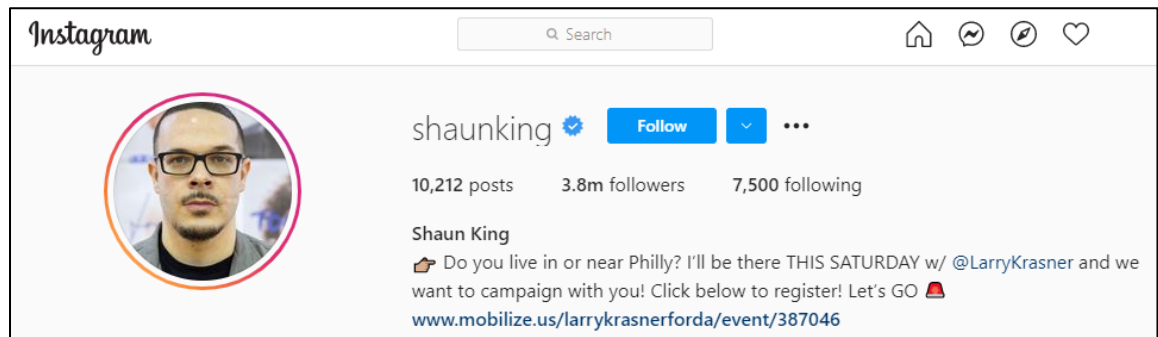

53. At a hearing soon after the Inquirer’s publication, DA Krasner was questioned by City Councilmembers about the articles findings and was forced to concede, “We are not happy with the conviction rate for possession of guns.”

54. This damning report by the Inquirer in combination with indisputable crime statistics, including the explosion of shootings and murders in Philadelphia, forced these Defendants, desperate to secure DA Krasner’s re-election and change the narrative of the DA race, to publish the outrageous and false accusations against Mr. Vega complained of herein.

The Defendants’ Social Media Posts and The North Star

55. Defendant King operates social media accounts on Twitter and Instagram.

56. Defendant King’s Instagram username has been identified as “shaunking.”

57. Defendant King's twitter handle has been identified as "@shaunking."

58. Defendant King also operates the website www.thenorthstar.com. According to its website, "The North Star was relaunched in 2018 by Shaun King."

59. Defendant Real Justice operates a twitter account identified as @RealJusticePAC.

60. Defendant Lawrence Krasner for DA operates a twitter account identified as @Krasner4DA.

The Defendants' Maliciously False Social Media Propaganda

61. During a time when tensions between police and citizens are one news story away from combusting, these Defendants conspired to publish maliciously false statements concerning Mr. Vega, in part, alleging that he has worked alongside police to wrongfully convict Anthony Wright and hundreds of other black men.

62. The Defendants published these knowingly false and reckless statements to shamelessly exploit the socio-cultural unrest in the wake of the tragic murders like George Floyd and others who have been wrongfully murdered at the hands of police.

63. This scheme manufactured lies about Mr. Vega to outrage the public and line the Defendants' pockets with donations at the expense of Philadelphians.

64. The publication of these statements was carried out to help DA Krasner maintain a stranglehold on the City's top law enforcement position by securing his bid at re-election.

65. Beginning on or around April 12, 2021 these Defendants launched a social media assault directing maliciously false accusations towards Mr. Vega. In doing so, they falsely report that Mr. Vega wrongfully convicted Tony Wright for rape and murder in 1993.

66. Defendant King posted the following to Twitter:

67. The above tweet by Defendant King falsely claims “Vega framed and convicted an innocent man [Anthony Wright] for the [1991] murder [of Louise Talley] and has lied about it for a generation.”

68. Mr. Vega was not at all involved in the prosecution and conviction of Anthony Wright for the murder of Louise Talley in the 1993 trial – a fact well known to all defendants.

69. Mr. Vega has never “framed” any individual for any crime, including the heinous crime of murder.

70. On the same day, April 12, 2021, Defendant Real Justice posted the following to their Instagram page:

71. The above Instagram post by Defendant Real Justice falsely claims “Philadelphia DA @KrasnerforDA’s opponent, Carlos Vega, wrongfully convicted Tony Wright for rape and murder in 1993.” This assertion is outrageous and knowingly false.

72. As stated, Mr. Vega was not at all involved in the prosecution and conviction of Anthony Wright for the murder of Louise Talley in the 1993 trial.

73. On April 27, 2021, Defendant King tweeted the following:

74. The above is palpably false; it states as fact that Mr. Vega is a “supervillain,” “monster,” “evil personified,” and “[h]e was fired from the Philadelphia DA’s office for corruption.” (emphasis added.)

75. Yet another social media post by Defendant King claims Mr. Vega was terminated for “gross misconduct”:

76. In the pending lawsuit<sup>8</sup>, neither the City of Philadelphia nor DA Krasner have claimed that Mr. Vega was terminated because of corruption.

77. These Defendants know this assertion of corruption as a basis for Mr. Vega’s termination is entirely false and have refused to correct the record.

78. On April 1, 2021, the Honorable Gene E.K. Pratter, presiding over the pending lawsuit entered an Order to approve the parties’ stipulation to amend protective orders, dated March 30, 2021. See April 1, 2021 Order attached hereto as Exhibit “D.” This Order has sealed records, including deposition transcripts like Mr. Krasner’s, related to Mr. Vega’s termination.

79. The Defendants now use the Court’s Order to seal in Vega v. Krasner as a shield and a sword – blocking the public’s access to DA Krasner’s sworn deposition testimony regarding his alleged reason(s) for terminating Mr. Vega while conspiring with the Defendants to publish maliciously and knowingly false statements that Mr. Vega was fired for “corruption” and for “framing and convicting” Tony Wright and other innocent men/women.<sup>9</sup>

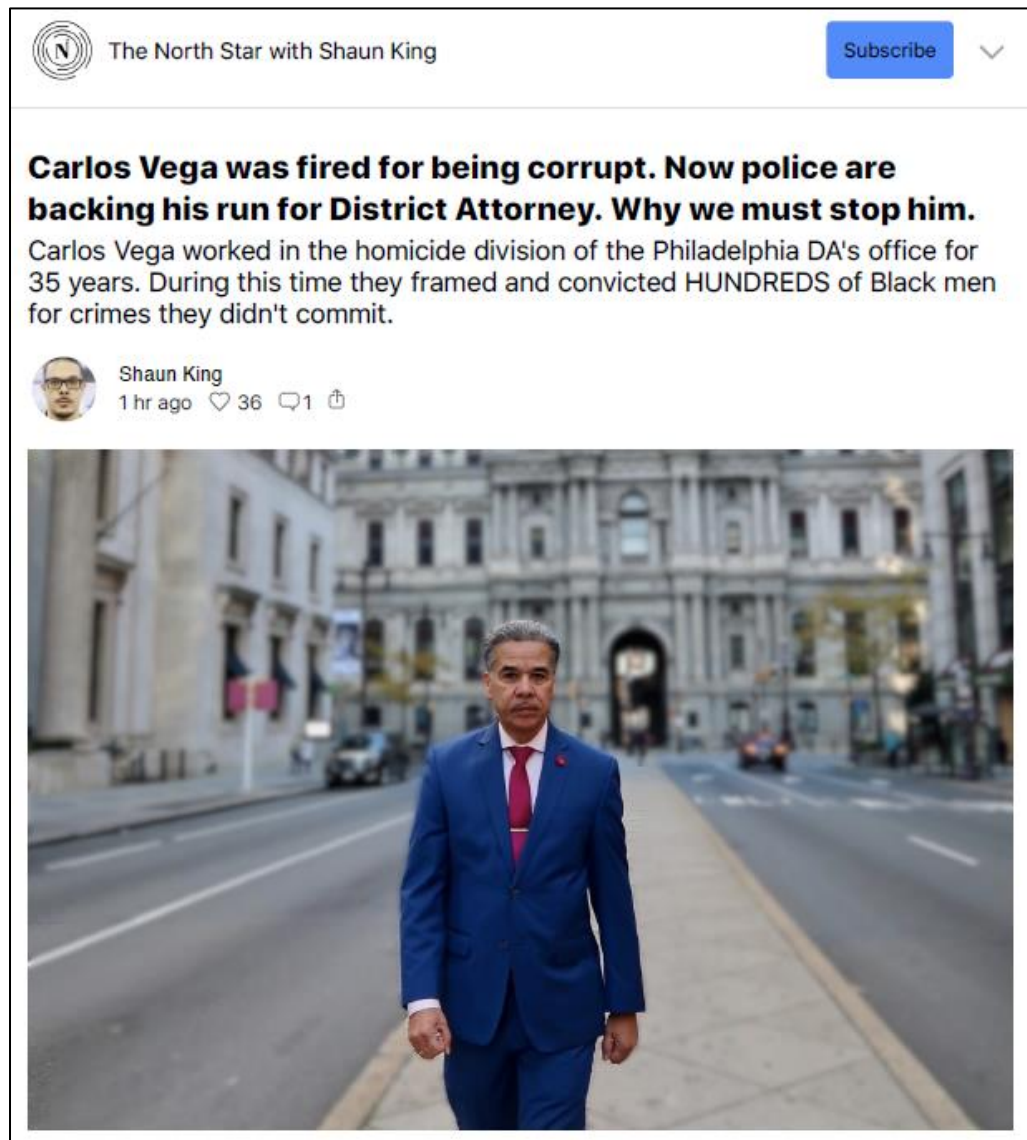

80. A publicly accessible pretrial memorandum<sup>10</sup> outlines the alleged basis for which DA Krasner claims he terminated Mr. Vega in January 2018. This document was electronically filed with the Court on November 11, 2020. Nowhere in that memorandum does DA Krasner accuse Mr. Vega of decades of corruption or make any mention of the Anthony Wright trial.

81. Defendant King's April 27, 2021 tweet referenced above also supplied a direct link to his webpage, www.thenorthstar.com, and the following article:

See “Carlos Vega was fired for being corrupt” attached hereto as Exhibit “E.”

82. Yet another social media post by Defendant King alleges “hundreds of black men across Philadelphia, was framed by the Philadelphia Police and the Philadelphia DA’s office for crimes” ... “They used fake evidence, false witnesses, and false confessions – threatening the hell out of people and their family if they didn’t participate” ... “Carlos Vega knew this was going down. It’s why he WAS FIRED on Larry Krasner’s first day in office as the new DA of Philly”:

83. In another social media post, Defendant King states as fact that Mr. Vega spent thirty-five (35) years as a prosecutor framing and convicting black men for murders they didn't commit:

84. The above posts are laden with falsehoods, improper inferences and innuendos, and knowingly false-light presentations of Mr. Vega.

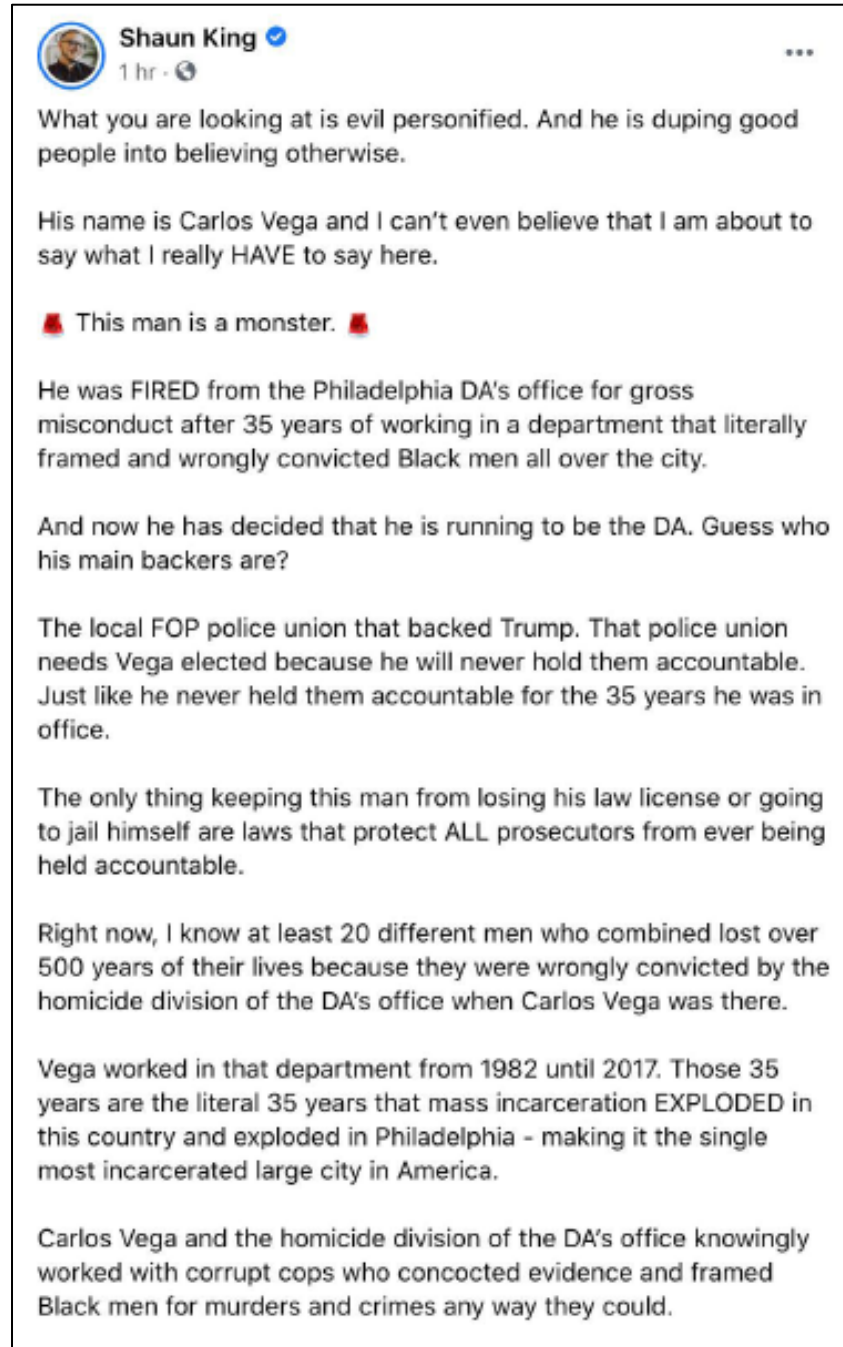

85. In Defendant King's article published on his website, The North Star, and included in his social media posts, he writes:

From 1982 until 2017, Carlos Vega worked as a prosecutor inside of the homicide division of the Philadelphia District Attorneys Office. Those 35 years literally match up with the explosion of mass incarceration in Philly and across the country. And during those 35 years, Carlos Vega and the staff of that office that he worked alongside every single day were never held accountable as they worked directly with police who made up fake evidence, forced and bribed witnesses into giving false testimony, and threatened people with violence if they didn't make false confessions. Carlos Vega and his team knew this. And they worked with these police anyway. They used false evidence. And they suppressed evidence that would routinely have proved people were innocent.

And Carlos Vega would've continued doing this in perpetuity, but for one thing. The people of Philadelphia elected Larry Krasner in 2016, and when he took office in 2017, the first thing he did was fire Carlos Vega and 30 other prosecutors and staffers for their rampant corruption. Many of them are lucky that they were just fired. They should be disbarred. They should lose their law licenses. Many of them should be incarcerated for what they've done. Here's a news story from the day they were all fired.

See Exhibit "E."

86. The following is another social media post by Defendant King:

▲ So listen, together, I need us to stop this man. He is literally rising in the polls because the good people of Philadelphia didn't know all of the corrupt and foul stuff he did for those 35 years before he was FIRED.

The local media never covered it.

So here's what we need to do.

1. Tag anybody you know from Philadelphia. Call them. Email them. Text them.

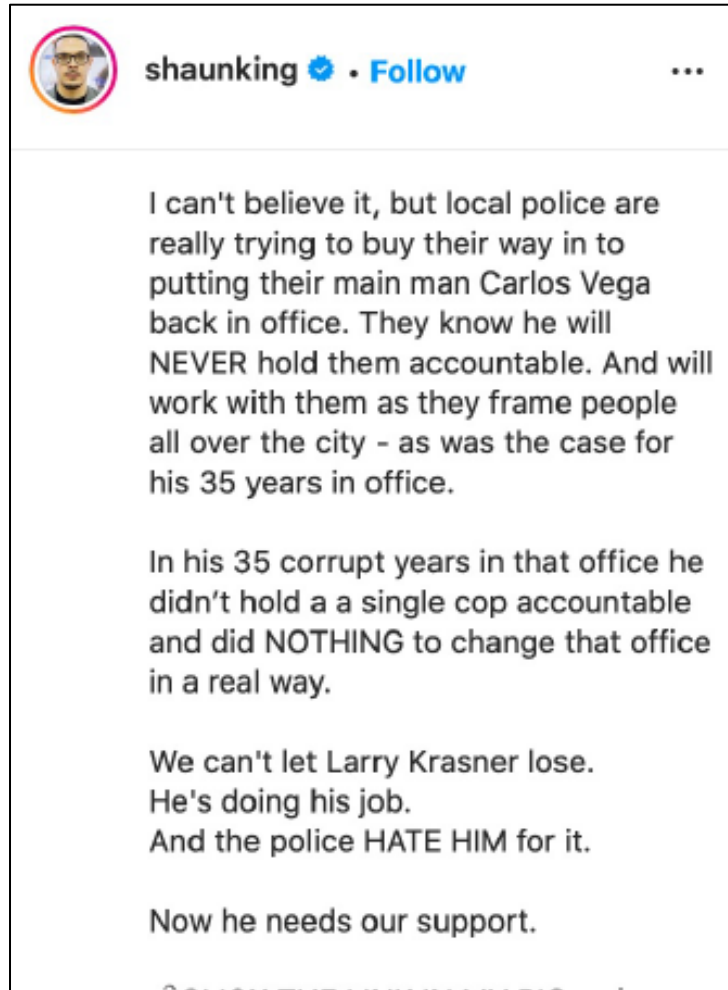

2. Click the link in my bio to chip in to help us stop Carlos Vega. We have to do this.

3. Let him know how you feel at @VegaForDA

Now, let me really break it down for you ok?

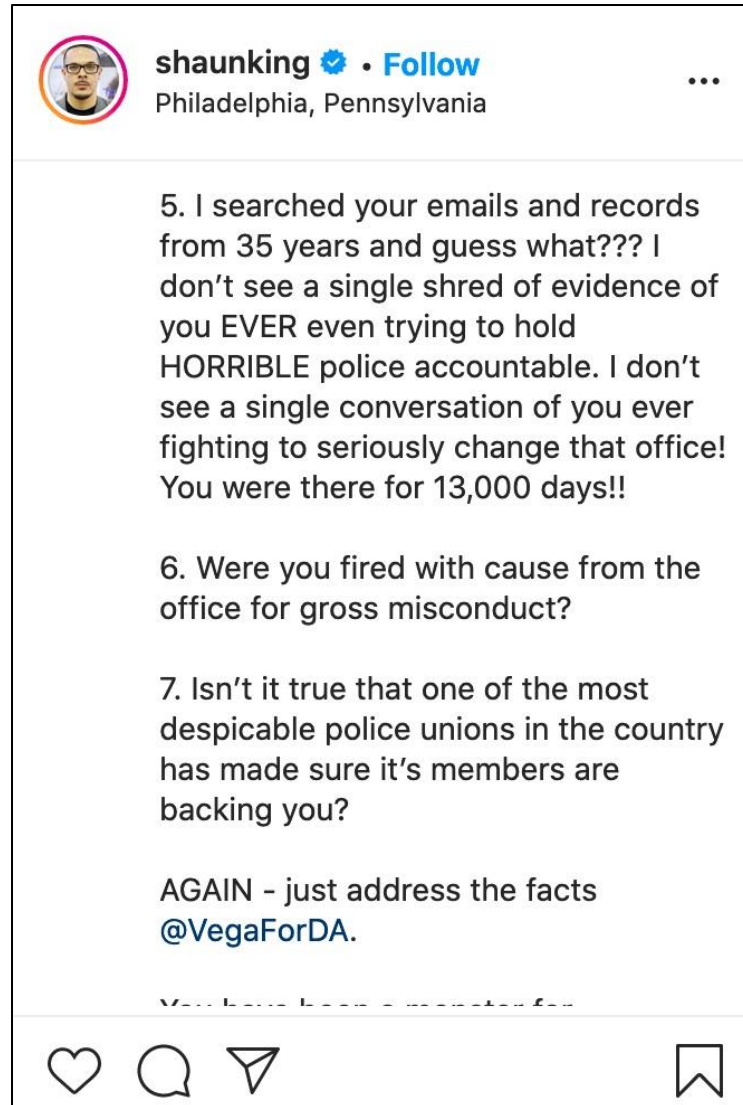

Check my next posts...

87. Defendant King also published the following:

88. Defendant King asserts that Mr. Vega's "records" establish he has never held police accountable, yet somehow in Defendant King's review of said records he overlooked Mr. Vega's prosecutions of police officers.

89. Contrary to the Defendants' false statements, public records prove that Mr. Vega held bad police accountable during his career as a prosecutor.

90. Mr. Vega successfully prosecuted Philadelphia Police Officer Ryan Shiver for two counts of homicide by vehicle while driving under influence<sup>11</sup> stemming from a car crash that killed two Northeast Philadelphia brothers after a Super Bowl party. Mr. Shiver was sentenced to six (6) to twelve (12) year incarceration.<sup>12</sup>

91. Additionally, Mr. Vega coordinated a grand jury investigation which culminated in the indictment of Philadelphia Police Homicide Detective Ronald Dove for his involvement in helping his girlfriend, Erica Sanchez, evade investigators who suspected her in a homicide.

92. Detective Dove was indicted on counts of hindering apprehension, flight to avoid apprehension, criminal conspiracy, obstructing the administration of law, tampering with or fabricating physical evidence, and unsworn falsification to authorities.

93. Working with investigators, Mr. Vega collected overwhelming evidence of guilt for Erica Sanchez and Detective Dove, thereby securing guilty pleas from both defendants.<sup>13</sup>

94. The above writings by Defendant King are plainly false. Either the Defendants knew the facts and buried them, or willfully chose not to inform themselves.

The Defendants' Refusal to Correct the Record

95. On April 29, 2021 the undersigned attorneys sent a letter outlining the maliciously false statements at issue in this lawsuit. That letter and Mr. Vega's demands for retraction were flatly rejected by the defendants.

96. On May 4, 2021, Mr. Vega initiated this lawsuit by way of Writ of Summons. See Writ of Summons attached hereto as Exhibit “F.”

97. On or around May 5, 2021, these Defendants doubled down on their maliciously false statements and Defendant King begged Mr. Vega to sue him.

98. Defendant King posted to his Instagram account:

99. On May 6, 2021 the official twitter account for DA Krasner's campaign, @Krasner4DA, published the below statement in response to Mr. Vega's initiation of this lawsuit:

100. DA Krasner's response fails to separate Defendant King or Defendant Real Justice's statements as those of his own or his campaigns because he cannot.

101. In addition to doubling-down on the maliciously false statements, DA Krasner in his response to the notice of an impending lawsuit states the following:

“Vega thinks no one should criticize him or ask hard questions about his role as one of two prosecutors who tried to keep Tony Wright behind bars after the DNA evidence established with certainty Wright was innocent. He also thinks that he should get a free pass for committing prosecutorial misconduct – even though a Republican-majority PA Supreme Court unanimously recognized that what he did was completely egregious and called it that.”

102. This statement asserting the Pennsylvania Supreme Court “recognized that what he did was completely egregious and called it that” is in fact completely unrelated to Anthony Wright, the Wright conviction, or Mr. Vega’s role as a prosecutor in Wright’s 2016 retrial.

103. The above assertion is intended to cast Mr. Vega in a false light before the public by asserting as fact that the highest State Court authority agrees with these Defendants maliciously false assertions that Mr. Vega “framed and convicted” Tony Wright and DA Krasner fired him for that corruption.

104. The truth these Defendants intentionally withheld from readers is this: in 1999 Mr. Vega tried a capital jury trial in the case of Commonwealth v. DeJesus.<sup>14</sup> The jury convicted defendant DeJesus of first-degree murder. Following this conviction, and at the penalty phase the jury found the aggravating circumstances outweighed the mitigating circumstances, and, accordingly, imposed a sentence of death. On appeal, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court found that Mr. Vega committed error during his closing statement by urging the jurors to “send a message to the community.” The Pennsylvania Supreme Court held this error required defendant DeJesus receive a new hearing for the penalty phase only. The Pennsylvania Supreme Court did not find Mr. Vega committed any error or misconduct in securing defendant DeJesus's first-degree murder conviction.

105. DA Krasner's response falsely implies a cause and effect relationship between Mr. Vega's involvement in the 2016 Wright retrial and the Pennsylvania Supreme Court's decision to grant defendant DeJesus a new penalty hearing.

106. The act of resurrecting the Pennsylvania Supreme Court's opinion in the DeJesus matter – which occurred more than a decade before Mr. Vega's involvement in the 2016 Wright retrial and is wholly unrelated to Anthony Wright – was intended solely to mislead the public, tarnish Mr. Vega's reputation, place Mr. Vega in a false light before the public, and help secure DA Krasner's bid for re-election.

107. These maliciously false statements, taken in the context in which the Defendants place them, asserts that Mr. Vega, in his official capacity as a City prosecutor, carried out his duties to the detriment of the community to which he served and that he obstructed the fair administration of justice.

A Civil Conspiracy: Follow the Money

108. The relationship between DA Krasner, Shaun King, and Real Justice PAC dates back to early 2017 when Real Justice PAC was formed mere days before Larry Krasner announced his candidacy for District Attorney.

109. During that 2017 campaign, DA Krasner and Real Justice PAC worked together to get Krasner elected.

110. In February 2019, DA Krasner and Real Justice PAC entered into a settlement agreement with the Board of Ethics of the City of Philadelphia for their violations of campaign finance laws during the 2017 campaign.

111. These admitted violations included Real Justice PAC working closely with Krasner and embedding three full-time staffers with his campaign to develop and run a volunteer based peer-to-peer text message program and a phone bank operation using web-based dialer system. The three embedded staffers worked closely with other members of the Krasner campaign. See 2019 Settlement Agreements attached hereto as Exhibit “G.”

112. Since at least 2019, filings with the Federal Election Commission (“FEC”) by Real Justice PAC demonstrate rent payments, in the monthly amount of $1,550.00, made by Real Justice to Tiger Building LP.

113. It is well known that DA Larry Krasner has an ownership interest in Tiger Building LP located at 1221 Locust St. Philadelphia, PA. It has also been reported that Tiger Building LP owed $130,000 in taxes to the Philadelphia School District.<sup>15</sup>

114. Real Justice PAC reports filed with the FEC since 2019 also account for payroll expenditures by Real Justice to DA Krasner’s campaign manager, Brandon Evans.

115. Additionally, Real Justice PAC reports filed with the FEC reflect payments by Real Justice for payroll and reimbursement for digital services to the Grassroots Law Project. The Grassroots Law Project is a 501(c)(4) organization focusing on education and advocacy related to the criminal legal system. Shaun King is identified on the Grassroots Law Project as a co-founder:

SHAUN KING

Recently hailed by Time Magazine as one of the 25 Most Influential People in the World on the Internet, Shaun King is a skilled organizer and is the Co-Founder of Real Justice, which has helped elect brave new District Attorneys all over the country. His daily podcast, The Breakdown, has become famous for its practical action steps for social good. He is a fierce advocate for families impacted by police brutality, white supremacy, and mass incarceration.

116. Now, to further their political gain, DA Krasner, Real Justice PAC, and Shaun King conspire to spread these malicious and dirty lies about Mr. Vega. To that end, the Krasner campaign has hooked their wagon to Defendants King and Real Justice to spread this message because it is well-known Defendant King is one of the world's most influential people on the internet.

117. Through their outrageous and false social media posts, the Defendants direct readers to their fundraising pages located at www.actblue.org. To achieve their national political goals and line their own pockets, the Defendants spread these falsehoods to anger the public and solicit unsuspecting donor's hard-earned money. This donation money is collected and redistributed to the Defendants various organizations, businesses, and PACs.

118. In spite of prior fines and penalties assessed by the Board of Ethics, these Defendants continue violate Philadelphia Code by coordinating donations, split evenly between the Krasner campaign and Real Justice, but used exclusively to benefit the re-election of DA Krasner.

Shaun was recently listed by Time Magazine as one of the 25 most influential people in the world on the internet. He is a co-founder of Real Justice PAC, The North Star, and the host of the popular daily news podcast, The Breakdown.

BECKY BOND

Becky is a co-founder of Real Justice PAC, and served as an advisor to the Bernie 2016 presidential campaign and Beto for Texas 2018 Senate campaign. She is a partner at The Social Practice.

BRANDON EVANS

Brandon is the Political Director of Real Justice PAC. He ran Philadelphia DA Larry Krasner's first campaign. Prior to working with Krasner, he's worked in labor and has run state and local campaigns.

122. In exchange for spreading these malicious falsehoods, the Krasner campaign paid thousands of dollars to Real Justice PAC in the last reporting period.

123. The Real Justice PAC in turn uses that money to keep DA Krasner's campaign manager, Brandon Evans, on the payroll, along with Shaun King and Becky Bond.

124. 132. On Saturday, May 15, 2021, DA Krasner, Shaun King, and Anthony Wright plan to canvass the City and campaign for DA Krasner's reelection:

133. The above evidence demonstrates the substantial steps taken in furtherance of their scheme and conspiracy as alleged herein, to intentionally and maliciously spread lies about Mr. Vega to deceive the public and place him in a false light.

COUNT I
FALSE LIGHT
PLAINTIFF v. ALL DEFENDANTS

134. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all other averments contained in this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

135. Defendants Shaun King, Real Justice PAC, and Lawrence Krasner for DA, acting through their agents (actual, ostensible, or otherwise), servants and/or employees, repeatedly published the above-mentioned false and malicious statements, innuendos and implications to individuals in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the nation, and the world.

136. Despite the Defendants' awareness of the facts and circumstances relating to Mr. Vega, these Defendants placed Mr. Vega in a false light before the public.

137. The aforementioned false light in which Mr. Vega was placed would be highly offensive to a reasonable person given the malicious and false accusations of professional gross misconduct, corruption, and criminal acts.

138. The Defendants intentionally, and/or recklessly, withheld significant and vital facts pertaining to the Anthony Wright conviction and/or lied about specific facts in an effort to convince the unknowing public that Plaintiff was involved in Mr. Wright's original 1993 conviction.

139. The Defendants intentionally and/or recklessly, accused Mr. Vega of forcing criminal defendants provide false confessions, coercing witnesses to provide false statements, and intentionally suppressing exculpatory evidence, without any factual basis and in spite of publicly available facts to the contrary.

140. The Defendants knew or should have known that accusing Mr. Vega of corruption, forcing false confessions, coercing witnesses to provide false statements, suppressing exculpatory evidence, framing and convicting Anthony Wright for rape and murder in 1993, would cause Plaintiff to be held in a false light before the public.

141. Defendant King repeatedly asserts to the public that he reviewed Mr. Vega's entire police record, including emails and files; yet Defendant King is woefully ignorant of the facts and never actually cites to the sources of his malicious falsehoods.

142. The Defendants' repeated and knowingly false representations that Plaintiff is corrupt, threatened violence to force defendants to provide false confessions, coerced witnesses to provide false statements, suppressed exculpatory evidence, framed and convicted Anthony Wright, would be highly offensive to a reasonable person.

143. As a result of the Defendants' malicious, intentionally, and/or reckless conduct as set forth above, Plaintiff is entitled to such damages as will compensate him for the injury to his professional and personal reputation, and punitive damages to punish the Defendants for their conduct and to deter the Defendant and others similarly situated from similar acts in the future.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Carlos Vega, Esq., demands judgment against all defendants in an amount of compensation for damages in excess of the jurisdiction limit to guarantee a jury trial, together with interest and costs, and punitive damages in an amount which will punish defendants for their conduct and deter them and others similarly situated from similar acts in the future.

COUNT II
CIVIL CONSPIRACY
PLAINTIFF v. ALL DEFENDANTS

144. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the averments contained in this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

145. All Defendants acted in concert with the purposed of damaging Mr. Vega's reputation, as well as his relationships with fellow lawyers, judges, and most critically, the Philadelphia voters who will cast their vote for the next District Attorney on Tuesday, May 18, 2021.

146. As set forth above, Defendants, between and amongst themselves, entered into an agreement and/or otherwise engaged in a continuing conspiracy to deceive the public by knowingly spreading false and malicious lies about Mr. Vega and his thirty-five (35) year career as a prosecutor at the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office.

147. The Defendants took substantial steps in furtherance of their scheme and conspiracy as alleged herein, including but not limited to, intentionally spreading false statements on social media and news media about Mr. Vega accusing him of corruption in his official capacity as a public servant City prosecutor, including but not limited to, forcing false confessions, coercing witnesses to provide false statements, suppressing exculpatory evidence, framing and convicting Anthony Wright in the 1993 rape and murder trial, and wrongfully convicting hundreds of black men.

148. Meetings, conferences, telephone calls, emails, and other communications were held between and among the Defendants for purposes of discussing the false and malicious scheme to place Mr. Vega in a false light before the public, as alleged herein.

149. Defendants performed the acts set forth herein intending to injure the reputation of Mr. Vega and place him in a false light before the public.

150. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendants conspiracy and scheme, Mr. Vega suffered the damages previously set forth herein.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Carlos Vega, Esq., demands judgment against all defendants in an amount of compensation for damages in excess of the jurisdiction limit to guarantee a jury trial, together with interest and costs, and punitive damages in an amount which will punish defendants for their conduct and deter them and others similarly situated from similar acts in the future.

Re: Carlos Vega

Mr. King:

We represent Carlos Vega and I have in hand your most recent missives regarding Mr. Vega published through your social media platforms and on your crowdfunding website, The North Star. You cloak yourself and these poisonous ramblings in the aura of ethics and morality, yet they have neither. Instead, your maliciously misleading rhetoric was strategically aimed to attack a former public servant whose distinguished professional career was dedicated to fighting for the safety and welfare of all Philadelphia citizens.

Your regrettable behavior as it relates to Mr. Vega is actionable. Mr. Vega demands that you correct the intentional lies that you are propagating about him. If you are unwilling to correct what you know is false, we will ensure that a Philadelphia jury sends a clear message to you and to those like you who hide behind a keyboard exploiting social cultural unrest and masquerading as “social justice warriors” at the expense of the real change this country needs.

Let me identify just a few things from your writings that we know that you know are false:

1) You wrote “They (the police) know that Carlos will NEVER hold them accountable. In his 35 corrupt years in that office, he didn’t hold a single cop accountable and did NOTHING to change that office in a real way.”

That is false, and you know it. Why did you ignore Mr. Vega’s successful prosecution of, for example, Officer Ryan Shiver or homicide detective Ronald Dove? Is it because those prosecutions defeat your false narrative? Ironically, your champion, Larry Krasner, is the one who has failed to properly address policing issues, and indeed permitted a plea for an officer who shot someone in the back. DA Krasner permitted this officer to stay at home rather than go to prison. Where is your feigned outrage about that?

Shaun King
29 April 2020

2) You falsely claim that Mr. Vega “framed and convicted” Anthony Wright.

Did you even read the witness statements or the testimony from that trial? In your thorough investigation before writing these hit pieces, why did you withhold from your readers that Mr. Vega was involved in that case for less than one month, brought in at the last minute to assist the lead prosecutor at the trial? Why did you withhold from your readers that the Innocence Project investigated the Wright prosecution, and reported only the lead prosecutor to the Pennsylvania Disciplinary Board and not Mr. Vega?

3) You claim that Mr. Vega is “corrupt” and was a “primary leader of the DA’s office” that “literally framed and convicted an innocent man for murder.” That, too, is palpably false. Why did you withhold from your readers that Mr. Vega has never held any supervising position within the Philadelphia District Attorney’s Office, let alone the homicide division?

These are just a small sample of your statements, laden with falsehoods, improper inferences and innuendos, and knowingly wrong false-light presentations of Mr. Vega. You have written other, similarly misguided allegations, and they will be addressed in the future as needed.

Your writings are shameful at best and maliciously false at their core. Regardless of whether you knew these facts and buried them, or willfully chose not to inform yourself of the facts, it is plain you had but one goal: to smear Mr. Vega, compromise his reputation, and disrupt his political campaign by lying to the Philadelphia voters.

I challenge you to be responsible and correct the record now. I am putting you on notice to preserve all materials made, received and/or reviewed by you related in any way to Mr. Vega, DA Krasner, and all your funding sources in any way connected with this upcoming election. Also you are to ensure that you retain all of your paper and electronic files, and all of your contact lists for any resources related in any way to these defamatory ponderings. Finally, preserve all materials made, received and/or reviewed by you related in any way to your use of these malicious falsehoods to raise money to “... chip in and help us stop Carlos Vega.”

You have until Monday, May 3, 2021 to correct your knowingly false statements.

Fake threats of a lawsuit from corrupt lawyer Carlos Vega. Like Trump.

See that document above? That's the cover page of what it is basically Carlos Vega's official intent to sue me, our organization Real Justice, which has elected over 20 DA's across the country, and the campaign of Philadelphia District Attorney Larry Krasner. It's garbage. Hot garbage. And it's coming from a man that is so afraid of his own shadow that when you tell him about himself he panics and sues you because the truth about his evil record is so ugly that he can hardly stand to have it said out loud. I don't know how this guy lives with himself.

This is what happens when a monster of a man, Carlos Vega, who worked in the single most corrupt division of the single most corrupt DA's office in the nation for 35 years, without any accountability, without any media scrutiny, without anybody ever saying out loud how horrible he is, finally has somebody punch back for a change. But Carlos has a glass jaw - and is hoping that the same system that protected him for 35 years will now protect him, but it doesn't quite work like that - because you can't win a lawsuit against someone for the ugly truths they've told about you. Please allow me to explain.

Carlos Vega worked in the Homicide Division of the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office for 35 years from 1982 - 2017. During those 35 years, which literally coincide with the explosion of mass incarceration in Philadelphia, and the country at large, his office wrongly charged and convicted more innocent Black men than any other office IN THE NATION. They worked with corrupt cops who planted evidence and forced false confessions. They worked corrupt cops who routinely scooped innocent Black boys and men up off the streets and randomly pinned heinous crimes on them that they had nothing to do with. Those cops used fake informants, fake evidence, fake reports, and that office used it all - and then routinely hid evidence and destroyed evidence that they had that would have cleared and exonerated the people they framed together for crimes.

I want you to notice two parties that Carlos Vega didn't name in his intent to sue:

1. Tony Wright
2. The Innocence Project.
3. The Pennsylvania Supreme Court

All three of them have said about Carlos Vega the very things Larry Krasner and I have said.

In the 3 short years Larry Krasner has been District Attorney of Philadelphia, he has already exonerated a staggering 20 people that his office framed and convicted for crimes they didn't commit before Larry got there. Let me give you the scale of that work. In 3 years Larry has exonerated more people than not just any other DA's office in the country, but more than the Innocence Project itself during that same time. Can you imagine what it would be like to serve a single day in jail for a crime you didn't commit? How about a month? Or a year? Or how about 25 years?

That's not hyperbole. That's how long our dear brother Tony Wright spent in prison after he was arrested, charged, and convicted for a heinous rape and murder of a 78-year-old woman that he had absolutely nothing to do with. For 25 years Tony begged the Philadelphia DA's office to test the DNA they found in the case and they simply refused. Can you imagine? While Tony was in jail he missed 25 years of raising his kids. So many members of his family died. And Tony had to carry the shame of people believing that he did something that was unthinkable. They sentenced Tony to LIFE WITHOUT PAROLE. Here's Tony's story, "Finally Free."

"Finally Free" - The Tony Wright Story

But after DNA evidence fully exonerated Tony, and proved his innocence, the Homicide Division of the Philadelphia DA's Office did something that was unprecedented in a DNA exoneration case - they charged him with the same crimes again. Carlos Vega was co-counsel in that case. He was the primary leader of it. Let me be clear, DNA evidence all over the crime scene belonged to another man and no DNA evidence at all at the crime scene belonged to Tony Wright. He was never there. In 100% of the DNA exoneration cases before this, the exonerated person was then allowed to move on with their life. But Carlos Vega refused to let go. After 11 brutal days at trial, the jury came back in less than 90 minutes with a full not-guilty verdict in the case. Ultimately, what they did to Tony Wright cost Philadelphia a $10 million misconduct and wrongful conviction settlement - the largest in the history of the city. When Larry Krasner then became the DA, he fired Carlos Vega over this and more.

When I call Carlos Vega “evil,” I didn’t come up with those words for him. They came from Tony Wright himself. LISTEN TO TONY below...

Dear @VegaForDA,

When I said you were evil, I didn’t make that up. I heard it from your victims first.

You can ignore me.

But you can’t ignore Anthony Wright.

LISTEN TO HIM, in his own words.

It’s no wonder corrupt cops are lining up behind you. You do their dirty work.

Instead of apologizing for all of the harm he caused Tony Wright, Carlos Vega has repeatedly lied to the media to say that he was hardly even involved with the case. Vega told the local press that saying he was very involved with the case was a “bald-faced lie” and that he was “brought in at the eleventh hour, two weeks before trial, just to question three witnesses.” And here’s the thing - for most of Carlos Vega’s career, he could tell a lie like that and nobody would check him on it, but things are different in 2021. His lies were so egregious that The Innocence Project themselves decided to violate their own unspoken rule of not critiquing people running for office.

Here’s their statement. It’d be worth your time to read it. It gets to the heart of how evil Carlos Vega truly is. Let me provide the meat of it here. Again, when you have to be called a liar from The Innocence Project, it’s a problem. Carlos Vega lied about every single aspect of his role in Tony's case. Here's The Innocence Project calling Carlos Vega out for his gross dishonesty and lack of integrity. He should be disbarred for this. Ask yourself why Carlos didn't name The Innocence Project in his fake lawsuit. They said he lied over and over and over again about his entire involvement in Tony's case.

In recent months, former ADA (Assistant District Attorney) Carlos Vega, now a candidate for Philadelphia District Attorney, has made several statements regarding his role in Mr. Wright's 2016 re-prosecution. When Mr. Vega was asked about his role in Mr. Wright's re-prosecution in a February media interview, he said, "My only participation in that case was calling civilian witnesses and I think the crime scene personnel. With respect to the rest of the case, I was not involved at all. It was not my case." Earlier this week, the Philadelphia Inquirer reported that when speaking at a candidates' forum in March, Mr. Vega characterized his role in the Wright trial as follows: "I was brought in at the 11th hour, two weeks before trial, just to question three witnesses."

These statements are false. Mr. Vega was co-counsel for the Commonwealth throughout Mr. Wright's 2016 trial, which spanned nearly three full weeks. In that capacity, he questioned fifteen different trial witnesses. They included: (1) presenting the testimony of the three lead detectives, whose claims to have extracted a truthful confession from Mr. Wright and to have found evidence from the crime in his home were the key disputed issues in the case; (2) cross-examining Mr. Wright himself (at great length – over 59 pages), during which Mr. Vega repeatedly challenged Mr. Wright's integrity, veracity, and his claims of innocence; and (3) cross-examining the defense's expert pathologist, who testified that the forensic evidence from the victim's autopsy was inconsistent with Mr. Wright's police-authored "confession."

Mr. Vega also testified at his post-trial deposition in 2017 about the specific role he played in Mr. Wright's pretrial proceedings. Mr. Vega recalled that he was assigned to co-counsel the case with ADA Kirn approximately four to six weeks before trial. He met on numerous occasions with the lead detectives to prepare their testimony. He personally consulted with the head of the DAO's homicide division about whether the case should proceed to trial, in which he expressed his view that the Commonwealth had a strong case against Mr. Wright. He made recommendations to his superiors regarding plea deals(s), which ultimately led to an offer — presented to the defense by Mr. Vega personally — that Mr. Wright plead guilty to a minimum term of 40-to-80 years (meaning that he would not be eligible for parole for another 15 years), which Mr. Wright promptly declined.

To this day, Mr. Vega has not apologized to Mr. Wright for the role he played in seeking his return to prison on a second life sentence, nor publicly acknowledged Mr. Wright's innocence. In fact, during his deposition, Mr. Vega said that he believed Mr. Wright was guilty, and further stated that even if he had proof in 2016 that the detectives had knowingly fabricated Mr. Wright's confession or planted physical evidence against him, he would have still recommended that the District Attorney's Office proceed to trial.

Again, those aren't my words, but the words of The Innocence Project. And when Tony Wright successfully sued the city for your misconduct, and the misconduct of your office, you said something that I have never seen a prosecutor say in my entire life. You said that even if you learned that police planted evidence on Tony Wright, even if you learned that they fabricated a false confession, that it wouldn't even matter to you. This is beyond the pale. Again, you should be disbarred and lose your law license over this.

And you knew that the same officers who framed Tony Wright, Officers Manuel Santiago and Frank Jastrzembski, have been involved in numerous other wrongful convictions, playing a major role in putting Jimmy Dennis and Willie Veasy behind bars for decades for murders they had nothing to do with. Both of those men were exonerated because of misconduct from your office and both of those men were also paid millions of dollars from the taxpayers of Philadelphia because of it.

But that's not all, both Officers Santiago and Jastrzembski donated money to the Carlos Vega campaign. Think about that. Philadelphia Police Officers who were involved in at least three wrongful convictions while you were a prosecutor are donating to your campaign.

Jimmy Dennis spent 25 years on death row for a murder he had nothing to do with. Carlos Vega knew this. It was his office that convicted Jimmy. And Carlos knew the officers who were at the center of Jimmy Dennis being framed for murder, but he didn't care. Here's Jimmy's story:

Willie Veasy spent 27 years behind bars for a murder he didn't commit. He was framed by police that donated to the Vega campaign and convicted by the office Carlos worked in for 35 years. Here's Willie's story.

If that isn't enough for you, The Pennsylvania Supreme Court was forced to issue a rebuke of Carlos Vega in a death penalty case where his instructions to the jury were so deeply unethical that they were forced to intervene.

Here the Pennsylvania Supreme Court says they were “dismayed” by the words of Carlos Vega telling the jury that they should give a man the death penalty not on the merits of his case, but to send a message to everyday people across Philadelphia that sent chills down their spine if they ever considered doing evil themselves.

This Court well appreciates the pressures and challenges of trying criminal cases, and particularly cases where the ultimate penalty is involved. We also recognize that there are many things that occur in the course of a trial which are beyond the control or anticipation of counsel and the trial judge-such as witnesses, jurors or spectators acting inappropriately. But one aspect of a trial which is far more subject to rational control is the behavior of attorneys-officers of this *329 Court whose professionalism is absolutely indispensable to the fair administration of justice in this Commonwealth. Lawyers have an obligation to be aware of, and to abide by, the law governing the conduct of the matters in which they are involved. This Court's unambiguous directive in Hall was not aimed at the conduct of witnesses, or police officers, or jurors, or court staff, or judges: it was aimed directly at counsel. Moreover, it concerned a matter and stage of trial over which counsel have unique, indeed premeditated control: i.e., what it is they intend to say to the jury. When this Court issues a directive concerning what is permissible at that stage, we expect officers of the Court to abide by that directive. In light of our explicit directive in Hall, which was but the last in a series of decisions expressing grave concern over this very type of argument, we are dismayed, to say the least, by the government lawyer's use of such prohibited rhetoric in this case.

The Pennsylvania Supreme Court continued to blast Carlos Vega.

[16] Perhaps, as in the line of decisions which culminated in Chambers, this Court's clear directive in Hall proved too subtle.<sup>14</sup> In this instance, the directive was observed only by an extended breach, as the prosecutor inexplicably and directly exhorted the jury to impose the death penalty in order to send a message to people on the street and to people in prisons. The plea to such an external irrelevancy was so direct that it culminated in the prosecutor inviting the jury to sentence this appellant to death so as to “scare straight” others who might be considering murder. There was no role for such an argument here. The prosecutor's improper comments effectively invited jurors to ignore their sworn duty to decide the matter exclusively upon the facts presented concerning the weighing of specific statutory aggravating and mitigating circumstances. See  LaCava, 666 A.2d at 237; see also  Chambers, 599 A.2d at 644 (“[I]f a penalty of death is meted out by a jury, it **118 must be because the jury was satisfied that the substantive law of the Commonwealth requires its imposition....”).

Then they concluded by saying that if Carlos Vega did anything like this again, in “defiance” of the law that it would be at his own “peril.” This, too, was why he was fired by Larry Krasner.

thereby serve as the only appropriate basis for a verdict of death. Given the critical balancing process required of the penalty phase jury, the important individual role of jurors in this assessment, the inherently prejudicial nature of the argument, and the fact that the content of a lawyer's argument is easily within his control, we will no longer proceed with case-by-case assessments in this area. Such arguments are to be avoided and the peril of defiance is to fall upon the party who would flout the rule.

So yeah, I'm standing by every single word I said about you, Carlos. You are a monster. You ruined people's lives. You worked with corrupt cops. Your office repeatedly framed and convicted Black men for murders they had NOTHING to do with. And you know this. And you never intervened for Tony Wright - you tried him again. Your name is mentioned over 900 times in the transcripts on that case. When Tony calls you evil, when he calls you the devil, it's because you earned that moniker.

I'm going to frame this legal notice, put it on my wall, and show it off to friends and family to signify the time a monster like you tried to threaten me with a lawsuit for calling you out. Shame on you.

If you've made it this far, God Bless You! Please click here to donate to help re-elect Larry Krasner so that we can keep Carlos Vega far, far, far away from the DA's office for the rest of his life.

Philly gun arrests are on a record pace, but convictions drop under DA Krasner

Police are on pace to make 3,000 arrests this year for carrying a gun illegally, a record, but the people charged are less likely to be convicted.

Philadelphia Police Capt. Matthew Gillespie, of the 18th District, regularly posts photos on Twitter of guns that police have seized during arrests. Each of the firearms above was recovered in March 2021.

As Philadelphia's gun violence has surged to unprecedented heights, two troubling trends have quietly kept building:

Thousands more people are being arrested for carrying guns illegally. But their chances of being convicted in court have fallen by nearly a quarter.

That conundrum now drives a debate between the Philadelphia Police Department and the District Attorney's Office about how to stem the flow of illegal guns on city streets — and ultimately, how to slow possible violence by those who wield them.

In 2021, police are making arrests for carrying an illegal gun on a pace nearly three times that of 2017, according to an Inquirer analysis of police data and eight years of court dockets.

If the current pace continues, police will make more than 3,000 arrests this year for illegal gun possession — by far the most on record.

Alarming Pace of Illegal Gun Arrests

Philadelphia police are averaging nearly 9 arrests per day for illegal gun possession. That is over twice as many, on average, as last year through the same date, and on pace for over 3,000 gun arrests this year.

two years later.

Put plainly, people accused of carrying illegal guns in recent years have had better than a coin flip's chance of beating their case in court.

ADVERTISEMENT

The Inquirer analysis looked at cases where the most serious crime was a Violation of the Uniform Firearms Act (VUFA), nonviolent offenses that can range from carrying an unlicensed weapon, a misdemeanor, to being barred from possessing a firearm due to a previous conviction, a felony that can lead to years in prison.

Police have long considered VUFA arrests essential to reducing crime because they take weapons out of the hands of people who later might use them.

Police Commissioner Danielle Outlaw said Philadelphia's criminal justice system has become a "revolving door" for repeat gun offenders — leaving more of them on the street with their weapons, with little reason to fear the consequences of being caught.

Although she declined to single out District Attorney Larry Krasner, her top partner in Philadelphia law enforcement, Outlaw echoed a point that the Inquirer analysis revealed — that conviction rates for being caught with an illegal gun dropped after Krasner was sworn into office in January 2018.

ADVERTISEMENT

"If there's nothing to deter folks, if there's no consequence where people believe, 'If I do this, this is going to happen,' [then] there's no incentive to not carry a gun illegally, quite frankly," the commissioner said.

Krasner attributes the drop in convictions in part to police submitting weaker evidence or more cases being tossed out by judges because witnesses didn't show up in court.

In the years since the Philadelphia Police Department settled a civil rights lawsuit over unconstitutional pedestrian stop-and-frisks, officers have also been presenting more cases of guns they found during car stops, Krasner said. Those cases can be difficult to prosecute if multiple people were in the car and each disclaims ownership of the weapon, he said.

Despite the drop in convictions for the nonviolent VUFA charges, most people arrested solely for gun possession have not been rearrested for new gun crimes, he contended. He is more concerned with swiftly and fairly convicting the people who actually use those guns to kill or wound others.

Amid the record rise in shootings, the vast majority of them unsolved, "we are dealing essentially with a form of triage, and we have to be sensible about what we prioritize," he said.

Krasner, in the midst of a contested reelection race, said the city's focus instead should be on other issues — the long-standing structural problems that drive people toward picking up a gun, such as underfunded schools, government neglect of impoverished neighborhoods, and a bloated justice system that has targeted poor and Black and brown residents.

"If we're all going to focus on the questionable notion that everybody who possesses a gun is spending their time looking at data on what conviction rates are, then we're going to miss any solution that's actually going to be real and effective," the district attorney said. "Yes, enforcement is a small part of the story. The big part of the story is not that. The big part of the story is this city's chronic failure to invest in prevention that the community is crying out for. That is where we have to go."

into office as a reformer, and other criminal justice stakeholders — including the mayor, his former managing director, two of his police commissioners, and many rank-and-file officers, some of whom have recently become more vocal on the issue.

While the district attorney and the police commissioner agree that drastic, coordinated efforts must take place to check Philadelphia's soaring gun violence, they have publicly aired their fundamental differences over how to deal with nonviolent gun-possession violations.

(At a hearing Tuesday soon after this article was published online, city councilmembers questioned Krasner about its findings. The DA defended his office's handling of homicide and shooting cases but acknowledged: "We are not happy with the conviction rate for possession of guns." In response to a question, he promised to provide gun crime data to councilmembers who wanted to better understand the issue.)

Mayor Jim Kenney's views are in sharp contrast to Krasner's. Kenney said the plunging conviction rate for gun possession is making Philadelphia less safe — and fuels violence that overwhelmingly claims the lives of young people of color.

"My frustration is the loss of the energy and the promise of almost an entire generation of young Black men," Kenney said in a recent interview. "I get up every morning, I reach into my side table and I pull up my phone and I see the [shooting] numbers for the day, it's heart-wrenching."

'I'd rather throw a bullet than catch a bullet'

The Inquirer's data analysis, which focused solely on cases in which illegal gun possession was the most serious charge, showed that most people arrested for gun possession have not been rearrested for new crimes so far.

the analysis of court data, through mid-March. And only 2.5% were later charged in a murder, attempted murder, or aggravated assault.

Still, that conclusion tells only part of the story. Because four out of five shootings in Philadelphia do not result in charges, Inquirer data show, it's impossible to know with certainty who committed the crimes, their backgrounds, and whether they had a previous nonviolent gun offense. This makes it difficult to determine how much violence could have been prevented by more successful prosecutions of nonviolent gun possession.

Krasner's office said it has seen little evidence that those accused of carrying guns illegally are responsible for driving the violence, as the huge uptick in gun arrests since last year has done nothing to slow the current torrent of gun violence.

He agrees with many antiviolence activists who say any plan to stem the illegal use of guns by young people must center on providing resources and support to those who may be tempted to do so.

Advocates like Reuben Jones, executive director of Frontline Dads, a mentoring organization, see reasons behind the rise: As shootings surge in neighborhoods where residents have long felt targeted — not protected — by police, young people don't feel safe, and would rather risk getting caught with an unlicensed or illegal gun than getting shot or killed.

Jones said: "When young people don't feel valued, respected, trusted, or connected to the city's mainstream, they create their own struggle, their own path to survival."

Kevin Gold, 35, founder of the All the Kings Men mentoring program for males at the district's Building 21 high school, said he believes many of those who arm themselves on city streets do so as "a response to what they have been presented in life."

"I refuse to believe that people involved in that lifestyle actually want to be," said Gold, director of student support at the West Oak Lane public school.

Of the nearly 200 young men he has mentored since 2009, just one has been shot (and survived), and none has been arrested for carrying a gun, he said. "But I will say, all of them are exposed to opportunities to have access to guns and access to that lifestyle."

Stefan Shaw, 19, who graduated in 2019 from Building 21 and is still being mentored by Gold, echoed his sentiment.

University of Pennsylvania and is now a car salesman in Frankford.

“You can gather a room full of 100 boys my age and I’d bet they’d all raise their hands if you asked if they’ve been around a gun or seen gun violence, or somebody they know died from gun violence,” Shaw said.

Gold said many Black and brown young men in Philadelphia believe the police are not able to protect them, or not interested in doing so. As a result, these young men — including those who are otherwise law-abiding — are arming themselves.

Shaw and his friend Shyheem Boyd, 20, who is also a mentee of Gold’s, each said they plan to buy a gun legally when they are 21. (In Philadelphia, adults 21 or older can get a license to carry a concealed weapon outside their home if they pass a criminal background check and meet other requirements.)

“I’ll say it like this: I’d rather throw a bullet than catch a bullet,” Shaw said.

Upon reflection, Boyd said: “I’m not gonna lie. I’ll probably get one before I turn 21. There’s a lot of stuff that can happen in a year.”

Outlaw and her team strongly support mentoring, intervention, and more community resources. But she contended that the “vast majority” of the people police have been catching with firearms are either linked to the city’s gun violence or are at risk of becoming ensnared in it — especially as trivial conflicts, such as Instagram feuds, have been leading to violence.

“We’re not talking about somebody that made a mistake, somebody that was carrying for protection and they didn’t have their license,” Outlaw said. “We’re talking about people who know full well you’re not supposed to have it.”

West Philly cops grow frustrated

Police are encountering these illegal guns on the street every night.

So far this year, the department has recorded 32 days of 10 or more gun arrests, compared with just two days over the same time last year.

In the Southwest Philadelphia police division, the radio crackles with reports of gun arrests at a dizzying clip. Officers there have arrested more illegal gun suspects than anywhere else in the city: 638 people last year, and on pace to double that in 2021.

Shootings there have doubled since 2017.

attributes some of the spike in VOA arrests to what he describes as a growing lack of fear among people carrying guns due to dropping conviction rates and lower bails set by bail commissioners.

“What I see is that the city and the criminal justice system do not take illegally carrying firearms seriously,” Wood said. “There’s been an explosion of gun violence in the last three years, and there’s more than one reason — but I think one reason is we don’t take it seriously.”

An Inquirer review of 2019 gun arrests from the 18th Police District, in Wood’s Southwest Division, showed that of the 82 people whose cases were resolved as of January 2021, more than half, 53%, had their charges withdrawn or dismissed.

Wood and some of his officers contend that amid this reality, they are encountering the same suspects over and over again. Fed up, they began posting photos on social media of confiscated firearms and calling for stricter consequences for carrying them.

“They know there’s no consequences for carrying a gun in Philly. It’s zero to none,” he said. “I don’t care what kind of programs you come up with, what kind of money you put in prevention — if people are not held accountable, then people are going to keep carrying guns.”

He added: “I’m not worried about hurting people’s feelings anymore,” without specifying names. “We’ve got to do something different. We can’t keep doing the same thing.”

While not responding directly to Wood, Krasner said he believed that some cops, frustrated by the increasing violence — anger he shares — may be focusing on the surge in gun-possession cases to shift the narrative away from the department’s low clearance rate for shootings and homicides.

“What I hear more and more is ‘Let me tell you how many guns we got off the street this week, let me redefine the issue,’” Krasner said.

He credited officers with doing their best to follow orders, seize illegal firearms when they find them, and collect evidence they think is strong enough to sustain a prosecution.

Still, he added: “I think it’s always a good thing to get guns off the street. But it is not the primary job of police to harvest guns. It is the primary job of police to arrest people with solid evidence that can be proved beyond a reasonable doubt.”

The Inquirer found 17 instances in which someone charged with a VUFA case in 2018 was later charged with homicide, murder, or attempted murder.

One of them was Sabir Bunch, who has been charged with fatally shooting Sean Gunther, an expectant father, outside a barbershop in Tioga in December 2019.

Bunch had beaten a gun-possession case in court the year before, according to 2018 court records. The reasons were not clear because court documents in the case are no longer public.

Gunther's relatives are now left to wonder why that prosecution failed, and whether anything more could have been done to prevent Bunch — who has several other gun charges on his record — from allegedly squeezing the trigger.

Bunch "should not have been on the street," said Gunther's cousin, Gloria Easley, 41, who said many residents do not feel that public officials are doing enough to help neighborhoods suffering from crime or violence.

Gunther's sister, Rayna Gunther, said that her brother had lived a life on the street and served time but that he remained committed to his family and had provided hospice care for their father.

"He had been through a lot," she said, "but he didn't deserve to go out like that."

Seeking solutions

Why has the rate of convictions for gun possession fallen during Krasner's first term?

Besides blaming the difficulty of proving gun possession in car-stop cases with multiple occupants, his office offered the findings of a study of 221 VUFA cases that failed in court, both before and after Krasner took office.

One in 10 dismissed under Krasner failed because the police witness didn't show up at initial hearings, they said, and about one in three were dismissed because civilian witnesses failed to appear in court, requiring the judge to throw out those cases or prosecutors to withdraw them. Together, these two reasons account for close to half of his office's losing gun-possession cases.

Krasner did not say what might have changed. But he added that it would be a “logical consequence” to have a lower conviction rate “if the context is: You used to have a smaller number of cases with stronger evidence, and now you have a bigger number of cases with weaker evidence.”

Krasner has built his administration on the idea that fewer people belong in jail — that he was sworn in to help unravel decades of misguided policy devastating communities of color and fueling more crime.

» READ MORE: What do you know about the Philadelphians killed by guns in the past year? At least know their names.

But the explosion of gun arrests presents a new test for the reform-driven DA. Due to the court system’s slowdown during the pandemic, The Inquirer’s analysis shows that as many as 3,500 gun cases remain pending in court, even as dozens of new arrests are being recorded each week.

If his office were to convict 49% of those 3,500 people — its current rate — Krasner would face the possibility of significantly swelling the city’s jail population.

“This is an issue someone in my office raised with me,” Krasner said. “Are we going to replace a war on drugs with a war on guns, and are we going to use that as an excuse for mass incarceration?”

For her part, Outlaw said it’s time to move past philosophical disagreements — and toward consistent, fair consequences for carrying or using a gun.

She and Krasner say their offices have been collaborating more in recent months to review gun cases shortly after arrest and ensure they can stand up in court.

The need could not be more apparent. Even in the midst of a pandemic, Outlaw and the mayor said slowing the pace of gunfire is the city’s most urgent challenge.

“The numbers,” Outlaw said, “speak for themselves.”

Carlos Vega was fired for being corrupt. Now police are backing his run for District Attorney. Why we must stop him.

Carlos Vega worked in the homicide division of the Philadelphia DA's office for 35 years. During this time they framed and convicted HUNDREDS of Black men for crimes they didn't commit.

From 1982 until 2017, Carlos Vega worked as a prosecutor inside of the homicide division of the Philadelphia District Attorneys Office. Those 35 years literally match up with the explosion of mass incarceration in Philly and across the country. And during those 35 years, Carlos Vega and the staff of that office that he worked alongside every single day were never held accountable as they worked directly with police who made up fake evidence, forced and bribed witnesses into giving false testimony, and threatened people with violence if they didn't make false confessions. Carlos Vega and his team knew this. And they worked with these police anyway. They used false evidence. And they suppressed evidence that would routinely have proved people were innocent.

And Carlos Vega would've continued doing this in perpetuity, but for one thing. The people of Philadelphia elected Larry Krasner in 2016, and when he took office in 2017, the first thing he did was fire Carlos Vega and 30 other prosecutors and staffers for their rampant corruption. Many of them are lucky that they were just fired. They should be disbarred. They should lose their law licenses. Many of them should be incarcerated for what they've done. Here's a news story from the day they were all fired.

And finally, with Carlos Vega and dozens of other corrupt prosecutors gone, Larry Krasner was able to begin the process of exonerating the Black men all over the city that were still in prison for crimes they didn't commit - many of these men were not men when they were wrongly convicted, but were boys who lost their childhood, and even their healthiest adult years behind bars for crimes and mistakes that they literally didn't commit. It breaks my heart.

Since the media in Philadelphia is so beholden to the local police, they won't really get into the details of WHO caused so much pain. They are always willing to tell the stories of the men who've been exonerated, which I am glad about, but they almost never name the names of who actually caused the trauma. That's simply not good enough. So I need to do that here.

Carlos Vega was at the center of all of this. I don't think any other single person in that entire office participated in and witnessed more corruption and evil first hand than Carlos Vega. Again, he was there from 1982 - 2017 when he was finally fired for his corruption. I'm going to break down a number of the most important cases, but not reveal the depths of his evil like Tony Wright. Please, please, PLEASE watch his story here:

After Tony Wright was exonerated and set free from prison, with DNA evidence from The Innocence Project, guess what Carlos Vega did? He blatantly ignored the DNA evidence, charged Tony again with a horrible rape and murder of a senior citizen that he had NOTHING to do with, and took it trial. Could you imagine be exonerated by the Innocence Project when someone else's DNA was found at the crime scene and not yours, and they still try to send you back to prison?

Subscribe

Thankfully, a jury found Tony Wright not guilty in less than 90 minutes. It was an absurd and unethical thing to even do. But because Carlos Vega is counting on people not actually knowing the truth, he has recently started to lie publicly that he had nothing to do with the Tony Wright case. HE WAS A LEAD PROSECUTOR on it.

Sadly, his lies forced The Innocence Project to do something that I don't know that I've ever seen them do before. They had to issue a lengthy statement detailing the lies of Carlos Vega about their client, Tony Wright, and his case.

Here's their statement. It'd be worth your time to read it. It gets to the heart of how evil Carlos Vega truly is. Let me provide the meat of it here. Again, when you have to be called a liar from The Innocence Project, it's a problem.

In recent months, former ADA (Assistant District Attorney) Carlos Vega, now a candidate for Philadelphia District Attorney, has made several statements regarding his role in Mr. Wright's 2016 re-prosecution. When Mr. Vega was asked about his role in Mr. Wright's re-prosecution in a February media interview, he said, "My only participation in that case was calling civilian witnesses and I think the crime scene personnel. With respect to the rest of the case, I was not involved at all. It was not my case." Earlier this week, the Philadelphia Inquirer reported that when speaking at a candidates' forum in March, Mr. Vega characterized his role in the Wright trial as follows: "I was brought in at the 11th hour, two weeks before trial, just to question three witnesses."

These statements are false. Mr. Vega was co-counsel for the Commonwealth throughout Mr. Wright's 2016 trial, which spanned nearly three full weeks. In that capacity, he questioned fifteen different trial witnesses. They included: (1) presenting the testimony of the three lead detectives, whose claims to have extracted a truthful confession from

Mr. Wright and to have found evidence from the crime in his home were the key disputed issues in the case; (2) cross-examining Mr. Wright himself (at great length – over 59 pages), during which Mr. Vega repeatedly challenged Mr. Wright’s integrity, veracity, and his claims of innocence; and (3) cross-examining the defense’s expert pathologist, who testified that the forensic evidence from the victim’s autopsy was inconsistent with Mr. Wright’s police-authored “confession.”

Mr. Vega also testified at his post-trial deposition in 2017 about the specific role he played in Mr. Wright’s pretrial proceedings. Mr. Vega recalled that he was assigned to co-counsel the case with ADA Kirn approximately four to six weeks before trial. He met on numerous occasions with the lead detectives to prepare their testimony. He personally consulted with the head of the DAO’s homicide division about whether the case should proceed to trial, in which he expressed his view that the Commonwealth had a strong case against Mr. Wright. He made recommendations to his superiors regarding plea deals(s), which ultimately led to an offer — presented to the defense by Mr. Vega personally — that Mr. Wright plead guilty to a minimum term of 40-to-80 years (meaning that he would not be eligible for parole for another 15 years), which Mr. Wright promptly declined.

To this day, Mr. Vega has not apologized to Mr. Wright for the role he played in seeking his return to prison on a second life sentence, nor publicly acknowledged Mr. Wright’s innocence. In fact, during his deposition, Mr. Vega said that he believed Mr. Wright was guilty, and further stated that even if he had proof in 2016 that the detectives had knowingly fabricated Mr. Wright’s confession or planted physical evidence against him, he would have still recommended that the District Attorney’s Office proceed to trial.

Sadly, the local media continues to pretend as if a candidate for DA in their city wasn’t just called out for repeated lies by the Innocence Project. So we’ll do it here.

Listen, if you can, I’m asking you to chip in to help us re-elect Larry Krasner as District Attorney of Philadelphia. Anything you can give will make a real difference. The race is less than a month away and early voting is underway. When Larry came in to totally transform that office, we knew he would catch hell, but even I never imagined that police would try to handpick their main man who had been fired for corruption to run against Larry. It should be against the law to run an office you've been fired from, but here we are.

Also, two things, PBS has a new documentary on Larry Krasner that I want you to see.
Here's the trailer. The full episode is below.

And here's Episode 1. It's powerful - and already has nearly 3 million views.

Season 2 of our popular podcast series, W.O.C. at Work with Rai King and Dr. Blanca Ruiz is back! Episode 1 is available today on all podcasting platforms! Listen in as the hosts recap the year that was 2020 and what it meant for mothers, professional women, and the gains we may never recover. Also discussed is the idea of overworking as a trauma response!

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”) is made and entered into by the Board of Ethics of the City of Philadelphia, J. Shane Creamer, Jr., the Executive Director of the Board, Real Justice PAC, and Rebecca Bond, the Treasurer of Real Justice PAC, jointly referred to as “the Parties.”

RECITALS

- A. The Board of Ethics of the City of Philadelphia is an independent, five-member City board established in 2006 through voter approval of an amendment to the Philadelphia Home Rule Charter. Pursuant to Section 4-1100 of the Home Rule Charter, the Board is charged with administering and enforcing the City’s Campaign Finance Law.
- B. Real Justice PAC is a political committee based in San Francisco, California. In early 2017, the committee registered with the Pennsylvania Department of State in order to engage in activity in Pennsylvania. Rebecca Bond is the Treasurer of Real Justice PAC.
- C. Under the City’s Campaign Finance Law, a political committee could not make contributions of more than $23,800<sup>1</sup> in 2017 to a candidate for District Attorney. Both monetary and in-kind contributions count towards the limits.
- D. An excess contribution by a political committee violates Philadelphia Code § 20-1002(2) and is subject to a civil monetary penalty of three times the amount by which the contribution exceeded the limit, or $2,000, whichever is less.
- E. As provided by Board Regulation No. 1, Paragraph 1.1(q), an in-kind contribution occurs if a person: (i) provides goods or services directly to a candidate’s campaign without charge or at a reduced charge; (ii) pays someone else to provide goods or services to the candidate’s campaign; or (iii) coordinates expenditures it makes to advocate or influence the election of the candidate with the candidate’s campaign.
- F. Pursuant to the City’s Campaign Finance Law, if a political committee makes expenditures or incurs debt to influence a covered City election, it is required to electronically file with the Board a campaign finance report that discloses the committee’s financial transactions during the relevant reporting period. Pursuant to Philadelphia Code § 20-1006(4) and Regulation No. 1, Paragraph 1.24, the making of a material misstatement or omission in a report filed with the Board is a violation of the City’s Campaign Finance Law.
- G. In June of 2018, Board Enforcement Staff received a referral that indicated potential violations of the City’s Campaign Finance Law in 2017 by Real Justice PAC and the campaign of District Attorney candidate Lawrence Krasner. Accordingly, the Executive Director opened an investigation during which Enforcement Staff obtained bank records, emails, text messages, campaign records, and other documents and information.

- H. Real Justice PAC was founded in February of 2017 as a national federal PAC with the goal of changing the criminal justice system by electing reform-minded District Attorneys. Real Justice PAC identified the 2017 Philadelphia District Attorney election and the candidacy of Mr. Krasner as being of particular interest. Real Justice PAC decided that the best way for it to support Mr. Krasner's candidacy would be to embed three full time staffers with his campaign to develop and run a volunteer based peer-to-peer text message program and a phone bank operation using a web-based dialer system. The three embedded staffers worked closely with other members of the Krasner campaign.
- I. Two of these embedded staffers worked with the Krasner campaign from late March through the May 16, 2017 Primary Election. Real Justice PAC paid these two staffers a total of $17,104.84 during this time period and also reimbursed them a total of $465.24 for travel. The Krasner campaign did not make any payments to these two staffers.
- J. The third staffer worked with the Krasner campaign from early April through the November 7, 2017 General Election. Real Justice PAC paid this staffer a total of $16,250 for the time period of April through early September. In August of 2017, the Krasner campaign named the staffer a Deputy Campaign Manager and began making payments to him.
- K. In addition to the payments made to the three staffers, Real Justice PAC made administrative expenditures of $1,000 related to the work they did for the Krasner campaign.
- L. By paying people who worked as staffers on the Krasner campaign, as described above, Real Justice PAC made in-kind contributions to the Krasner campaign totaling $34,820.08 in 2017, which was $11,020.08 in excess of the limits imposed by the City's Campaign Finance Law.
- M. Real Justice PAC and the Krasner campaign were aware that any expenditures Real Justice PAC made in coordination with the campaign would be in-kind contributions. In 2017, however, Real Justice PAC miscalculated the amount of expenditures to the embedded staffers that would be attributable as in-kind contributions. Neither Real Justice PAC nor the three embedded staffers kept documentation of the specific amount of time they spent working on matters related to the Krasner campaign nor did anyone from the Krasner campaign request such documentation.
- N. Real Justice PAC filed campaign finance reports with the Board in 2017, as required by the City's Campaign Finance Law, but the reports the PAC filed for Cycles 2, 3, and 4 did not properly disclose the in-kind contributions Real Justice PAC made to the Krasner campaign.
- O. Real Justice PAC and Ms. Bond cooperated with the Board's investigation.
- P. The Parties desire to enter into this Agreement in order to resolve the issues described herein.

AGREEMENT

The Parties agree that:

1. By making in-kind contributions to the campaign of Lawrence Krasner in excess of the City's contribution limits, Real Justice PAC violated Philadelphia Code § 20-1002(2), for which it is liable for a civil monetary penalty of $2,000.
2. Because the 2017 Cycle 2 campaign finance report they filed with the Board contained material misstatements and omissions in violation of Philadelphia Code § 20-1006(4), Real Justice PAC and Ms. Bond are jointly and severally liable for a civil monetary penalty of $2,000.
3. Because the 2017 Cycle 3 campaign finance report they filed with the Board contained material misstatements and omissions in violation of Philadelphia Code § 20-1006(4), Real Justice PAC and Ms. Bond are jointly and severally liable for a civil monetary penalty of $2,000.
4. Because the 2017 Cycle 4 campaign finance report they filed with the Board contained material misstatements and omissions in violation of Philadelphia Code § 20-1006(4), Real Justice PAC and Ms. Bond are jointly and severally liable for a civil monetary penalty of $2,000.
5. The civil monetary penalties set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 4 are due within 30 days of the effective date of the Agreement. Payment shall be by check or money order made payable to the City of Philadelphia and delivered to the offices of the Board of Ethics.
6. Within 30 days of the effective date of the Agreement, Real Justice PAC will electronically file with the Board amended campaign finance reports correcting the reporting failures described in this Agreement.
7. From the effective date of the Agreement through December 31, 2021, Real Justice PAC shall notify the Board's Executive Director if it intends to make any expenditures to influence a particular covered City election. Such notice shall be due within 14 days of Real Justice PAC making its initial expenditure for that election.
8. Real Justice PAC and Ms. Bond release and hold harmless the Board and its staff from any potential claims, liabilities, and causes of action arising from the Board's investigation, enforcement, and settlement of the matters described in the Agreement.
9. In consideration of the above and in exchange for the compliance of Real Justice PAC and Ms. Bond with all of the terms of the Agreement, the Board waives any further penalties or fines against them for the conduct described in the Agreement.
10. The Parties will not make any public statements that are inconsistent with the terms of the Agreement.

11. If the City is forced to seek judicial enforcement of this Agreement, and prevails, Real Justice PAC and Ms. Bond shall be liable for attorneys' fees and costs reasonably expended in enforcing compliance with the Agreement. Fees for time spent by City attorneys shall be calculated based upon standard and customary billing rates in Philadelphia for attorneys with similar experience.
12. The Agreement contains the entire agreement between the Parties.
13. The Executive Director, or his designee, will submit a signed copy of the Agreement to the Board for approval. The Agreement shall become effective upon approval by the Board.
14. ## SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”) is made and entered into by the Board of Ethics of the City of Philadelphia, J. Shane Creamer, Jr., the Executive Director of the Board, Lawrence Krasner for District Attorney, Lawrence Krasner, and Vernon Anastasio, the Treasurer of Lawrence Krasner for District Attorney, jointly referred to as “the Parties.”

RECITALS

- A. The Board of Ethics of the City of Philadelphia is an independent, five-member City board established in 2006 through voter approval of an amendment to the Philadelphia Home Rule Charter. Pursuant to Section 4-1100 of the Home Rule Charter, the Board is charged with administering and enforcing the City’s Campaign Finance Law.
- B. Lawrence Krasner is the Philadelphia District Attorney. In 2017, he was a candidate for that office and used Lawrence Krasner for District Attorney as the candidate political committee for his campaign. Vernon Anastasio is the Treasurer of Lawrence Krasner for District Attorney.
- C. Real Justice PAC is a political committee based in San Francisco, California. In early 2017, the committee registered with the Pennsylvania Department of State in order to engage in activity in Pennsylvania.
- D. Under the City’s Campaign Finance Law, a political committee could not make contributions of more than $23,800<sup>1</sup> in 2017 to a candidate for District Attorney. Both monetary and in-kind contributions count towards the limits.
- E. The acceptance by a candidate of an excess contribution from a political committee violates Philadelphia Code § 20-1002(12) and is subject to a civil monetary penalty of three times the amount by which the contribution exceeded the limit, or $2,000, whichever is less.
- F. As provided by Board Regulation No. 1, Paragraph 1.1(q), an in-kind contribution occurs if a person: (i) provides goods or services directly to a candidate’s campaign without charge or at a reduced charge; (ii) pays someone else to provide goods or services to the candidate’s campaign; or (iii) coordinates expenditures it makes to advocate or influence the election of the candidate with the candidate’s campaign.
- G. Pursuant to the City’s Campaign Finance Law, candidates and candidate political committees must file campaign finance reports with the Board several times during the year of a covered City election. Pursuant to Philadelphia Code § 20-1006(4) and Regulation No. 1, Paragraph 1.24, the making of a material misstatement or omission in a report filed with the Board is a violation of the City’s Campaign Finance Law.

- H. In June of 2018, Board Enforcement Staff received a referral that indicated potential violations of the City's Campaign Finance Law in 2017 by Real Justice PAC and the campaign of District Attorney candidate Larry Krasner. Accordingly, the Executive Director opened an investigation during which Enforcement Staff obtained bank records, emails, text messages, campaign records, and other documents and information.
- I. Real Justice PAC was founded in February of 2017 as a federal PAC with the goal of changing the criminal justice system by electing reform-minded District Attorneys across the country. During the 2017 Philadelphia District Attorney election, in order to support Mr. Krasner's candidacy, Real Justice PAC embedded three full time staffers with his campaign. These staffers developed and ran a volunteer based peer-to-peer text message program and a phone bank operation using a web-based dialer system. The three embedded staffers worked closely with other members of the Krasner campaign.
- J. Two of these embedded staffers worked with the Krasner campaign from late March through the May 16, 2017 Primary Election. Real Justice PAC paid these two staffers a total of $17,104.84 during this time period and also reimbursed them a total of $465.24 for travel. The Krasner campaign did not make any payments to these two staffers.
- K. The third staffer worked with the Krasner campaign from early April through the November 7, 2017 General Election. Real Justice PAC paid this staffer a total of $16,250 for the time period of April through early September. In August of 2017, the Krasner campaign named the staffer a Deputy Campaign Manager and began making payments to him.
- L. In addition to the payments made to the three staffers, Real Justice PAC made administrative expenditures of $1,000 related to the work they did for the Krasner campaign.
- M. By paying people who worked as staffers on the Krasner campaign, as described above, Real Justice PAC made in-kind contributions to the Krasner campaign totaling $34,820.08 in 2017, which was $11,020.08 in excess of the limits imposed by the City's Campaign Finance Law.
- N. Real Justice PAC and the Krasner campaign were aware that any expenditures Real Justice PAC made in coordination with the campaign would be in-kind contributions. In 2017, however, Real Justice PAC miscalculated the amount of expenditures to the embedded staffers that would be attributable as in-kind contributions. During the time the three staffers were embedded with the Krasner campaign, Real Justice PAC did not provide documentation to the campaign detailing how much the PAC was paying them, nor did the Krasner campaign request such documentation.
- O. Lawrence Krasner for District Attorney filed campaign finance reports with the Board as required by the City's Campaign Finance Law but failed to disclose in any of those reports the in-kind contributions the campaign received from Real Justice PAC.
- P. Lawrence Krasner for District Attorney, Mr. Krasner, and Mr. Anastasio fully cooperated with the Board's investigation.

- Q. The Parties desire to enter into this Agreement in order to resolve the issues described herein.

AGREEMENT

The Parties agree that:

1. By accepting in-kind contributions from Real Justice PAC in excess of the City's contribution limits, Lawrence Krasner for District Attorney and Mr. Krasner violated Philadelphia Code § 20-1002(12), for which they shall be jointly and severally liable for a civil monetary penalty of $2,000, which shall be due within 60 days of the effective date of the Agreement.
2. Lawrence Krasner for District Attorney shall disgorge to the City $11,020.08, which is the excess portion of the in-kind contribution it received from Real Justice PAC. Payment shall be made on the following schedule:
  - 2.1. $2,000 within 90 days of the effective date of the Agreement; and
  - 2.2. At least $500 every 60 days thereafter until the full amount is paid, provided that the full amount shall be paid by December 31, 2019.
3. By failing to disclose in-kind contributions from Real Justice PAC in campaign finance reports that they filed with the Board, Lawrence Krasner for District Attorney and Mr. Anastasio violated Philadelphia Code § 20-1006(4), for which they are jointly and severally liable for a civil monetary penalty of $2,000, which shall be due within 60 days of the effective date of the Agreement.
4. All payments required by this Agreement shall be by check or money order made payable to the City of Philadelphia and delivered to the offices of the Board of Ethics.
5. Within 30 days of the effective date of the Agreement, Lawrence Krasner for District Attorney will electronically file with the Board amended campaign finance reports correcting the reporting failures described in this Agreement.
6. Lawrence Krasner for District Attorney shall not use funds received from Real Justice PAC, its officers, or affiliates to pay the penalties or disgorgement required by this Agreement.
7. Lawrence Krasner for District Attorney, Mr. Krasner, and Mr. Anastasio release and hold harmless the Board and its staff from any potential claims, liabilities, and causes of action arising from the Board's investigation, enforcement, and settlement of the matters described in the Agreement.
8. In consideration of the above and in exchange for the compliance of Lawrence Krasner for District Attorney, Mr. Krasner, and Mr. Anastasio with all of the terms of the Agreement, the Board waives any further penalties or fines against them for the conduct described in the Agreement.
9. The Parties will not make any public statements that are inconsistent with the terms of the Agreement.

10. If the City is forced to seek judicial enforcement of this Agreement, and prevails, Lawrence Krasner for District Attorney, Mr. Krasner, and Mr. Anastasio shall be liable for attorneys' fees and costs reasonably expended in enforcing compliance with the Agreement. Fees for time spent by City attorneys shall be calculated based upon standard and customary billing rates in Philadelphia for attorneys with similar experience.
11. The Agreement contains the entire agreement between the Parties.
12. The Executive Director, or his designee, will submit a signed copy of the Agreement to the Board for approval. The Agreement shall become effective upon approval by the Board.
13. If the Board rejects the proposed Agreement, presentation to and consideration of the Agreement by the Board shall not preclude the Board or its staff from participating in, considering, or resolving an administrative adjudication of the matters described in the Agreement. If the Board rejects the proposed Agreement, nothing in the proposed Agreement shall be considered an admission by either party and, except for this paragraph, nothing in the Agreement shall be effective.
